

Not-For-Profit Organizations

At Wilkin & Guttenplan we have more than three decades of expertise in addressing the specialized needs of not-for-profit organizations. We appreciate the importance of integrating your organization's values with fiscal responsibility, while providing you with the expertise, discretion and personal attention you deserve.

We invite you to learn more about how Wilkin & Guttenplan can help you with:

- Audits, reviews and compilations
- Budget-related advice, recommendations and review
- Cost-effective financial advice and reporting
- Financial statement preparation
- Free Board Member training to enhance their understanding of financial statements, as well a related accounting and tax issues
- Fundraising and planned giving strategy consultation
- GAO yellow book standards
- Identifying and adapting the best accounting /fiscal practices being used by similar organizations
- Investment policy
- Planning and implementing financial reporting, control and technology solutions
- Resources for compliance issues, employee benefits, unrelated business
- Income, maintaining not-for-profit status and (as applicable) clergy compensation/parsonage
- Single audit act compliance