LICENSES & CERTIFICATIONS

- CPA License: New Jersey

Sefi Silverstein, a Shareholder at WilkinGuttenplan, has been with the firm since 1985. Sefi specializes in providing tax, accounting and consulting services to closely-held businesses and individuals and has significant expertise in both business and individual taxation. Sefi oversees the firm's real estate practice group and has a concentration in clients involved in all aspects of real estate. Sefi's clients include firms with extensive real estate holdings, which require an array of related services typical in this environment – planning and consulting both on the entity level and personal level, estate planning, trusts, business valuations, family office services, etc.- all while keeping an eye on the global picture. Sefi is on the Board of the NJ Apartment Association as well as on the Advisory Board of the Rutgers Center for Real Estate. Involvement in these organizations includes teaching Financial Bootcamp to property managers and owners, as well as presenting on accounting and tax matters to graduate and undergraduate students on a real estate track.

Prior to joining the firm, Sefi worked for a Manhattan-based CPA firm.
