

MICHAEL MEZZO

Principal | CPA, MBA

Michael specializes in providing audit, review, and compilation services to clients in the real estate industry and to closely held businesses. Michael has also developed a large client base in the Common Interest Realty Association (CIRA) industry. He specializes in providing audits, reviews, and agreed-upon procedures engagements to these clients. Michael's expertise also includes working with developers to prepare financial forecasts for new construction to aid them with their DCA filing requirements.

Since joining the firm in 2013, Michael has worked with a diverse client base across a range of industries. Before joining WilkinGuttenplan, he worked at one of the Big Four accounting firms, where he provided audit and review services to healthcare and private-sector clients. He also completed a rotation in the firm's tax department, preparing tax returns for high-net-worth individuals.
